

Story of Prophet Musa (as) and Khidr (as) - Worksheet

- Pick the right answer.
- You have 20 minutes to finish the worksheet.
- Teacher will go over the answers afterwards.

1. Why did Prophet Musa want to meet Al-Khidr?

- a) To challenge him in a debate
- b) To learn special knowledge from him
- c) To become friends
- d) To teach him about Islam

2. What did Prophet Musa promise Al-Khidr before they started their journey?

- a) To obey all his commands
- b) To stay quiet and not ask questions
- c) To lead the way
- d) To carry all the food

3. What was the first thing Al-Khidr did that surprised Prophet Musa?

- a) He made a hole in a boat that belonged to fishermen
- b) He climbed a tree
- c) He built a wall
- d) He planted seeds

4. What did Prophet Musa do after Al-Khidr damaged the boat?

- a) He stayed silent
- b) He asked why Al-Khidr did it
- c) He helped break it further
- d) He left Al-Khidr

5. Why did Al-Khidr make a hole in the boat?

- a) To make it unusable for the tyrant king who takes away every good boat
- b) To sink it
- c) To make the owner angry
- d) To scare Prophet Musa

6. What was the second action Al-Khidr did that confused Prophet Musa?

- a) He killed a young boy
- b) He built a house
- c) He gave away their food
- d) He broke a wall

7. Why did Al-Khidr kill the boy?

- a) Because the boy was going to lead his parents to disbelief (kufr)
- b) Because the boy was sick
- c) To test Prophet Musa's patience
- d) To teach the boy a lesson

8. What was the third action Al-Khidr did during their journey?

- a) He built a wall for free
- b) He destroyed a house
- c) He planted crops
- d) He gave away treasure

9. Why did Al-Khidr rebuild the wall in the town?

- a) To hide a treasure for orphans
- b) To impress the townspeople
- c) To make the town look nicer
- d) To test his building skills

10. How did Prophet Musa feel after each of Al-Khidr's actions?

- a) Happy and calm
- b) Confused and impatient
- c) Proud and confident
- d) Tired and hungry

11. What did Al-Khidr say after Prophet Musa questioned him for the third time?

- a) "Let's keep going."
- b) "This is where we part ways."
- c) "You are very patient."
- d) "I need your help now."

12. What lesson did Prophet Musa learn from Al-Khidr?

- a) To trust Allah's wisdom even if we don't understand it
- b) To never ask questions
- c) To always build walls
- d) To avoid traveling

13. What does the story of Prophet Musa and Al-Khidr teach us about Allah?

- a) Allah's knowledge is limitless
- b) Allah always answers immediately
- c) Allah's wisdom is simple to understand
- d) Allah only guides prophets

14. This story teach us about one of six pillars of iman. Which pillar is that?

- a) Belief in angels
- b) Belief in the revealed books
- c) Belief in the Day of Judgement
- d) Belief in that all good and bad has been decided/predistined (al-Qadr)

Answers

1. Why did Prophet Musa want to meet Al-Khidr?

- a) To challenge him in a debate
- b) To learn special knowledge from him
- c) To become friends
- d) To teach him about Islam

Answer: b) To learn special knowledge from him

2. What did Prophet Musa promise Al-Khidr before they started their journey?

- a) To obey all his commands
- b) To stay quiet and not ask questions
- c) To lead the way
- d) To carry all the food

Answer: b) To stay quiet and not ask questions

3. What was the first thing Al-Khidr did that surprised Prophet Musa?

- a) He made a hole in a boat that belonged to fishermen
- b) He climbed a tree
- c) He built a wall
- d) He planted seeds

Answer: a) He made a hole in a boat that belonged to fishermen

4. What did Prophet Musa do after Al-Khidr damaged the boat?

- a) He stayed silent
- b) He asked why Al-Khidr did it
- c) He helped break it further
- d) He left Al-Khidr

Answer: b) He asked why Al-Khidr did it

5. Why did Al-Khidr make a hole in the boat?

- a) To make it unusable for the tyrant king who takes away every good boat
- b) To sink it
- c) To make the owner angry
- d) To scare Prophet Musa

Answer: a) To make it unusable for the tyrant king who takes away every good boat

6. What was the second action Al-Khidr did that confused Prophet Musa?

- a) He killed a young boy
- b) He built a house
- c) He gave away their food
- d) He broke a wall

Answer: a) He killed a young boy

7. Why did Al-Khidr kill the boy?

- a) Because the boy was going to lead his parents to disbelief (kufr)
- b) Because the boy was sick
- c) To test Prophet Musa's patience
- d) To teach the boy a lesson

Answer: a) Because the boy was going to lead his parents to disbelief (kufr)

8. What was the third action Al-Khidr did during their journey?

- a) He built a wall for free
- b) He destroyed a house
- c) He planted crops
- d) He gave away treasure

Answer: a) He built a wall for free

9. Why did Al-Khidr rebuild the wall in the town?

- a) To hide a treasure for orphans
- b) To impress the townspeople
- c) To make the town look nicer
- d) To test his building skills

Answer: a) To hide a treasure for orphans

10. How did Prophet Musa feel after each of Al-Khidr's actions?

- a) Happy and calm
- b) Confused and impatient
- c) Proud and confident
- d) Tired and hungry

Answer: b) Confused and impatient

11. What did Al-Khidr say after Prophet Musa questioned him for the third time?

- a) "Let's keep going."
- b) "This is where we part ways."
- c) "You are very patient."
- d) "I need your help now."

Answer: b) "This is where we part ways."

12. What lesson did Prophet Musa learn from Al-Khidr?

- a) To trust Allah's wisdom even if we don't understand it
- b) To never ask questions
- c) To always build walls
- d) To avoid traveling

Answer: a) To trust Allah's Qadar and Wisdom even if we don't understand it

13. What does the story of Prophet Musa and Al-Khidr teach us about Allah?

- a) Allah's knowledge is limitless
- b) Allah always answers immediately
- c) Allah's wisdom is simple to understand
- d) Allah only guides prophets

Answer: a) Allah's knowledge is limitless

14. This story teach us about one of six pillars of iman. Which pillar is that?

- a) Belief in angels
- b) Belief in the revealed books
- c) Belief in the Day of Judgement
- d) Belief in that all good and bad has been decided/predistined (al-Qadr)

Answer: a) Belief in that all good and bad has been decided/predistined (al-Qadr)