

Sins -- Worksheet

- Pick the right answer.
- You have 20 minutes to finish the worksheet.
- Teacher will go over the answers afterwards.

1. What is considered a sin in Islam?

- a) Listening to Allah
- b) Obeying Allah
- c) Disobeying Allah
- d) Asking for forgiveness

2. What is the result of every act of obedience?

- a) Punishment
- b) Reward
- c) Displeasure
- d) No effect

3. Why is disobedience to Allah considered serious?

- a) It is disrespectful
- b) It shows ungratefulness for Allah's blessings
- c) It brings happiness
- d) It is ignored by Allah

4. What is one reason why sin is bad in Islam?

- a) It makes you feel good
- b) It leads to rewards
- c) It shows a lack of gratitude for Allah's blessings
- d) It has no consequences

5. What happens to our sins?

- a) They are forgotten
- b) They are recorded by angels
- c) They are forgiven immediately
- d) They do not matter

6. Which of the following is a sin in Islam?

- a) Speaking truth
- b) Being kind to others
- c) Not listening to or respecting parents
- d) Helping those in need

Answer: c) Not listening to or respecting parents

7. When should we obey our parents?

- a) Only when they ask for something good
- b) Always, even if they tell us to do something bad
- c) Only when they ask for something bad
- d) Only when they are happy with us

8. What is stealing?

- a) Asking for permission to borrow
- b) Taking something that belongs to someone else without permission
- c) Gifting something to others
- d) Trading goods

9. How should a Muslim view what they have?

- a) They should be unhappy and jealous
- b) They should be thankful to Allah and never steal
- c) They should ask for more from others
- d) They should ignore their needs

10. What is the consequence of lying?

- a) It brings joy
- b) It leads to more lies and has bad effects
- c) It always results in truth
- d) It has no consequences

11. What is the character of a Muslim regarding truthfulness?

- a) They are sometimes truthful
- b) They always lie to protect themselves
- c) They are always truthful and honest, like Prophet Muhammad (saws)
- d) They do not care about truthfulness

12. What does backbiting mean?

- a) Speaking positively about someone
- b) Saying something about someone in their absence that they would not like
- c) Speaking directly to someone in their presence
- d) Keeping a secret

Answer: b) Saying something about someone in their absence that they would not like

13. What is the Islamic view on backbiting?

- a) It is a minor sin
- b) It is not harmful
- c) It is very bad and serious
- d) It is allowed in some cases

14. How should you respond if you hear someone backbiting?

- a) Ignore them and stay quiet
- b) Encourage them to keep talking
- c) Say something good about the person or make excuses for them
- d) Join in and gossip

15. What is the danger of the sins of the tongue, like lying or backbiting?

- a) They are harmless
- b) They can lead to Hellfire
- c) They make you popular
- d) They are forgiven automatically

Answers

1. What is considered a sin in Islam?

- a) Listening to Allah
- b) Obeying Allah
- c) Disobeying Allah
- d) Asking for forgiveness

Answer: c) Disobeying Allah

2. What is the result of every act of obedience?

- a) Punishment
- b) Reward
- c) Displeasure
- d) No effect

Answer: b) Reward

3. Why is disobedience to Allah considered serious?

- a) It is disrespectful
- b) It shows ungratefulness for Allah's blessings
- c) It brings happiness
- d) It is ignored by Allah

Answer: b) It shows ungratefulness for Allah's blessings

4. What is one reason why sin is bad in Islam?

- a) It makes you feel good
- b) It leads to rewards
- c) It shows a lack of gratitude for Allah's blessings
- d) It has no consequences

Answer: c) It shows a lack of gratitude for Allah's blessings

5. What happens to our sins?

- a) They are forgotten
- b) They are recorded by angels
- c) They are forgiven immediately
- d) They do not matter

Answer: b) They are recorded by angels

6. Which of the following is a sin in Islam?

- a) Speaking truth
- b) Being kind to others
- c) Not listening to or respecting parents
- d) Helping those in need

Answer: c) Not listening to or respecting parents

7. When should we obey our parents?

- a) Only when they ask for something good
- b) Always, even if they tell us to do something bad
- c) Only when they ask for something bad

d) Only when they are happy with us

Answer: a) Only when they ask for something good

8. What is stealing?

a) Asking for permission to borrow

b) Taking something that belongs to someone else without permission

c) Gifting something to others

d) Trading goods

Answer: b) Taking something that belongs to someone else without permission

9. How should a Muslim view what they have?

a) They should be unhappy and jealous

b) They should be thankful to Allah and never steal

c) They should ask for more from others

d) They should ignore their needs

Answer: b) They should be thankful to Allah and never steal

10. What is the consequence of lying?

a) It brings joy

b) It leads to more lies and has bad effects

c) It always results in truth

d) It has no consequences

Answer: b) It leads to more lies and has bad effects

11. What is the character of a Muslim regarding truthfulness?

a) They are sometimes truthful

b) They always lie to protect themselves

c) They are always truthful and honest, like Prophet Muhammad (saws)

d) They do not care about truthfulness

Answer: c) They are always truthful and honest, like Prophet Muhammad (saws)

12. What does backbiting mean?

a) Speaking positively about someone

b) Saying something about someone in their absence that they would not like

c) Speaking directly to someone in their presence

d) Keeping a secret

Answer: b) Saying something about someone in their absence that they would not like

13. What is the Islamic view on backbiting?

a) It is a minor sin

b) It is not harmful

c) It is very bad and serious

d) It is allowed in some cases

Answer: c) It is very bad and serious

14. How should you respond if you hear someone backbiting?

a) Ignore them and stay quiet

b) Encourage them to keep talking

c) Say something good about the person or make excuses for them

d) Join in and gossip

Answer: c) Say something good about the person or make excuses for them

15. What is the danger of the sins of the tongue, like lying or backbiting?

a) They are harmless

b) They can lead to Hellfire

c) They make you popular

d) They are forgiven automatically

Answer: b) They can lead to Hellfire