

Making Salah part of daily life - Worksheet

- Pick the right answer.
- You have 20 minutes to finish the worksheet.
- Teacher will go over the answers afterwards.

1. What is Salah described as in a Muslim's daily life?

- a) A ritual without purpose
- b) A chance to connect with Allah
- c) A cultural tradition
- d) A way to relax after a long day

2. What example is used to describe the cleansing effect of Salah?

- a) Drinking clean water
- b) Bathing five times a day in a stream
- c) Walking in a garden
- d) Sleeping peacefully at night

3. What does Salah prevent a person from?

- a) Learning new skills
- b) Shameful actions and evil deeds
- c) Working too hard
- d) Asking for forgiveness

4. What promise has Allah made for those who perform Salah at its fixed times?

- a) They will have wealth and fame
- b) They will be admitted into Paradise
- c) They will never face difficulties
- d) They will be free from all responsibilities

5. What will Salah be on the Day of Judgement?

- a) A shining light
- b) A burden
- c) A question to answer
- d) A forgotten act

6. What does the Prophet (saws) say happens when a person performs Wudu' correctly and prays?

- a) Their wealth increases
- b) Their minor sins committed by feet, hands, ears, eyes, and heart are forgiven
- c) They never face challenges
- d) They gain worldly success

7. What would the Prophet (saws) do when faced with difficulties?

- a) Seek help from friends
- b) Immediately perform Salah
- c) Leave the matter unresolved
- d) Write down his concerns

8. What happens to someone who regularly performs Salah on the Day of Judgement?

- a) They will be punished
- b) They will be a shining light, evidence, and salvation
- c) They will be forgotten
- d) They will only be forgiven for minor mistakes

9. Who will a person be associated with if they neglect Salah?

- a) Prophets and righteous people
- b) Qarun, Fir'awn, Haman, and Ubayy bin Khalaf
- c) Friends and family
- d) Angels and scholars

10. Why is the neglect of prayer often connected to the four enemies of Allah?

- a) They promoted prayer
- b) Neglect is linked to property, leadership, administrative tasks, or trade
- c) They were known for their kindness
- d) They encouraged others to pray

11. What should a student do if they cannot pray at school?

- a) Skip the prayer altogether
- b) Go home during lunch to pray if possible
- c) Wait until the next day
- d) Perform all the missed prayers at the end of the week

12. What should we do if our family members are not praying?

- a) Follow their example
- b) Perform Salah ourselves and encourage them politely
- c) Argue with them until they pray
- d) Stop performing Salah altogether

13. What concern will families have on the Day of Judgement?

- a) Their wealth and status
- b) Whether they performed their prayers or not
- c) Their education and achievements
- d) Their relationships with others

14. What does Shaytan want us to do regarding Salah?

- a) Perform it sincerely
- b) Be busy with other things and not pray
- c) Encourage others to pray
- d) Teach others about Salah

15. What should we do when it's time for Salah, even if we're busy?

- a) Finish work or play first
- b) Take a break and perform Salah on time
- c) Postpone it until later
- d) Forget about it altogether

Answers

1. What is Salah described as in a Muslim's daily life?

- a) A ritual without purpose
- b) A chance to connect with Allah
- c) A cultural tradition
- d) A way to relax after a long day

Answer: b) A chance to connect with Allah

2. What example is used to describe the cleansing effect of Salah?

- a) Drinking clean water
- b) Bathing five times a day in a stream
- c) Walking in a garden
- d) Sleeping peacefully at night

Answer: b) Bathing five times a day in a stream

3. What does Salah prevent a person from?

- a) Learning new skills
- b) Shameful actions and evil deeds
- c) Working too hard
- d) Asking for forgiveness

Answer: b) Shameful actions and evil deeds

4. What promise has Allah made for those who perform Salah at its fixed times?

- a) They will have wealth and fame
- b) They will be admitted into Paradise
- c) They will never face difficulties
- d) They will be free from all responsibilities

Answer: b) They will be admitted into Paradise

5. What will Salah be on the Day of Judgement?

- a) A shining light
- b) A burden
- c) A question to answer
- d) A forgotten act

Answer: a) A shining light

6. What does the Prophet (saws) say happens when a person performs Wudu' correctly and prays?

- a) Their wealth increases
- b) Their minor sins committed by feet, hands, ears, eyes, and heart are forgiven
- c) They never face challenges
- d) They gain worldly success

Answer: b) Their minor sins committed by feet, hands, ears, eyes, and heart are forgiven

7. What would the Prophet (saws) do when faced with difficulties?

- a) Seek help from friends
- b) Immediately perform Salah

- c) Leave the matter unresolved
- d) Write down his concerns

Answer: b) Immediately perform Salah

8. What happens to someone who regularly performs Salah on the Day of Judgement?

- a) They will be punished
- b) They will be a shining light, evidence, and salvation
- c) They will be forgotten
- d) They will only be forgiven for minor mistakes

Answer: b) They will be a shining light, evidence, and salvation

9. Who will a person be associated with if they neglect Salah?

- a) Prophets and righteous people
- b) Qarun, Fir'awn, Haman, and Ubayy bin Khalaf
- c) Friends and family
- d) Angels and scholars

Answer: b) Qarun, Fir'awn, Haman, and Ubayy bin Khalaf

10. Why is the neglect of prayer often connected to the four enemies of Allah?

- a) They promoted prayer
- b) Neglect is linked to property, leadership, administrative tasks, or trade
- c) They were known for their kindness
- d) They encouraged others to pray

Answer: b) Neglect is linked to property, leadership, administrative tasks, or trade

11. What should a student do if they cannot pray at school?

- a) Skip the prayer altogether
- b) Go home during lunch to pray if possible
- c) Wait until the next day
- d) Perform all the missed prayers at the end of the week

Answer: b) Go home during lunch to pray if possible

12. What should we do if our family members are not praying?

- a) Follow their example
- b) Perform Salah ourselves and encourage them politely
- c) Argue with them until they pray
- d) Stop performing Salah altogether

Answer: b) Perform Salah ourselves and encourage them politely

13. What concern will families have on the Day of Judgement?

- a) Their wealth and status
- b) Whether they performed their prayers or not
- c) Their education and achievements
- d) Their relationships with others

Answer: b) Whether they performed their prayers or not

14. What does Shaytan want us to do regarding Salah?

- a) Perform it sincerely
- b) Be busy with other things and not pray
- c) Encourage others to pray

d) Teach others about Salah

Answer: b) Be busy with other things and not pray

15. What should we do when it's time for Salah, even if we're busy?

a) Finish work or play first

b) Take a break and perform Salah on time

c) Postpone it until later

d) Forget about it altogether

Answer: b) Take a break and perform Salah on time