

Why do Muslims pray -- Worksheet

- Pick the right answer.
- You have 20 minutes to finish the worksheet.
- Teacher will go over the answers afterwards.

1. Why do Muslims pray five times a day?

- a) To stay healthy
- b) To remember Allah and thank Him
- c) To play with their friends
- d) To win rewards

2. What is the name of the prayer Muslims perform five times a day?

- a) Hajj
- b) Zakat
- c) Salah
- d) Fasting

3. Which prayer is the first one Muslims pray early in the morning?

- a) Dhuhr
- b) Isha
- c) Fajr
- d) Maghrib

4. Why do Muslims face the Kaaba in Makkah when they pray?

- a) It's a rule for all Muslims to pray in the same direction
- b) It's the largest building in the world
- c) To get closer to the stars
- d) To ask for gifts

5. What does praying five times a day help Muslims do?

- a) Feel connected to Allah throughout the day
- b) Get more sleep
- c) Become famous
- d) Run faster

6. Which of these is NOT one of the five daily prayers?

- a) Fajr
- b) Dhuhr
- c) Eid
- d) Asr

7. How do Muslims prepare before praying?

- a) By eating food
- b) By washing themselves with wudu (ablution)
- c) By taking a nap
- d) By wearing special shoes

8. Why is Salah important for Muslims?

- a) It helps them show off to their friends
- b) It helps them remember Allah and stay grateful
- c) It's a fun activity
- d) It makes them taller

9. What do Muslims say in their prayer to praise Allah?

- a) Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Greatest)
- b) Welcome, friends!
- c) Let's play!
- d) Good morning!

10. What happens if Muslims forget to pray one of the five prayers?

- a) They can make it up later with Allah's forgiveness
- b) They will be punished immediately
- c) They can skip it
- d) They have to pray 10 times the next day

Answers

1. Why do Muslims pray five times a day?

- a) To stay healthy
- b) To remember Allah and thank Him
- c) To play with their friends
- d) To win rewards

Answer: b) To remember Allah and thank Him

2. What is the name of the prayer Muslims perform five times a day?

- a) Hajj
- b) Zakat
- c) Salah
- d) Fasting

Answer: c) Salah

3. Which prayer is the first one Muslims pray early in the morning?

- a) Dhuhr
- b) Isha
- c) Fajr
- d) Maghrib

Answer: c) Fajr

4. Why do Muslims face the Kaaba in Makkah when they pray?

- a) It's a rule for all Muslims to pray in the same direction
- b) It's the largest building in the world
- c) To get closer to the stars
- d) To ask for gifts

Answer: a) It's a rule for all Muslims to pray in the same direction

5. What does praying five times a day help Muslims do?

- a) Feel connected to Allah throughout the day
- b) Get more sleep
- c) Become famous
- d) Run faster

Answer: a) Feel connected to Allah throughout the day

6. Which of these is NOT one of the five daily prayers?

- a) Fajr
- b) Dhuhr
- c) Eid
- d) Asr

Answer: c) Eid

7. How do Muslims prepare before praying?

- a) By eating food
- b) By washing themselves with wudu (ablution)
- c) By taking a nap

d) By wearing special shoes

Answer: b) By washing themselves with wudu (ablution)

8. Why is Salah important for Muslims?

a) It helps them show off to their friends

b) It helps them remember Allah and stay grateful

c) It's a fun activity

d) It makes them taller

Answer: b) It helps them remember Allah and stay grateful

9. What do Muslims say in their prayer to praise Allah?

a) Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Greatest)

b) Welcome, friends!

c) Let's play!

d) Good morning!

Answer: a) Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Greatest)

10. What happens if Muslims forget to pray one of the five prayers?

a) They can make it up later with Allah's forgiveness

b) They will be punished immediately

c) They can skip it

d) They have to pray 10 times the next day

Answer: a) They can make it up later with Allah's forgiveness